

Alcohol Interlocks: towards a European approach for the fight against drink-driving?

Monday 21st March 2016, 09:00 - 13:30

Hellenic Ministry of Infrastructure, Transport and Networks
Anastaseos 2, Papagos Cholargos 156 69,
Athens, Greece

The European Transport Safety Council together with the Hellenic Ministry of Transport and the Road Safety Institute Panos Mylonas have the pleasure of inviting you to a round-table event at the Greek Ministry of Infrastructure, Transport and Networks in Athens to raise awareness amongst policy makers, the private sector and key opinion leaders of how to develop a systemic approach to reduce alcohol misuse in road transport.

Measures to tackle drink driving such as the use of alcohol interlocks, enforcement, the BAC limit and how to target novice drivers, will all be on the agenda.

Participation is free but seats are limited. To register, please send an email before Friday 18th March 2016 to: Ilyas.Daoud@etsc.eu

Interpretation Greek/English will be provided.
